

The Flounder Cup Competition 2019-2020

The first Flounder Cup contest of the season has been completed and the second one is just around the corner in October.

CQ WW DX RTTY

The CQ WW DX RTTY began 0000Z September 28 and ended at 2359Z September 29. Both SDXA and IDXA put up good scores with five SDXA members combined for a total of 145,849 points. IDXA was not far behind with their three stations combining for 134,203 points. SDXA leads in the Total Points Category and IDXA leads in the Per-Participant Category.

Rod, AC7GL, of IDXA with a score of 67,375 claimed High Individual Score bragging rights for this contest. Rod commented “Almost no EU, several SA, a few JA on Sunday. Did better on 80 this time, 43 QSO’s. Just a few on 15 Saturday afternoon.” The other two top scores were turned in by IDXA’s Jay, N7ZUF, and SDXA’s Gary, K7GS, with 64,008 and 58,039 points, respectively.

2019-2020 Season

The next contest of the 2019-2020 season is the CQ WW SSB which begins at 0000Z October 26 and ends at 2359Z October 27. The exchange we will send is RS, always 59 even if you can barely hear the other station, and CQ zone number which is 3 for WA and ID. The exchange you will receive will be RS, also a 59, and Zone. All the rule details are at

The most important things are to get on the air, make contacts, add to your DXCC totals, add to your club’s score in the Flounder Cup Competition, but most of all, have FUN!. It does not matter whether you make just a few contacts or operate the maximum time.

The remaining schedule for the season is

- CQ WW SSB – October 26 & 27, 2019
- CQ WW CW – November 23 & 24, 2019
- ARRL RTTY RU – January 4 & 5, 2020
- CQ WPX RTTY – February 8 & 9, 2020
- ARRL CW – February 15 & 16, 2020
- ARRL SSB – March 7 & 8, 2020
- CQ WPX SSB – March 28 & 29, 2020
- CQ WPX CW – May 30 & 31, 2020
